YOUR VOICE MATTERS

Be a part of the conversation to improve the lives of older Queenslanders.

Our population is ageing with more people living longer and healthier lives, so we need to build communities that support people to age well.

For over 60 years Council on the Ageing (COTA) Queensland has worked with older people to influence decision making and create positive social change. We promote older people's rights and advocate to Government on issues that affect us all as we age.

We are holding a series of community conversations throughout the state and we want to hear from you!

Your voice matters and by joining our conversation you will inform our work to create a more just, equitable and caring community in which older people are actively involved and have access to appropriate support, services and care.

When we create communities with older people in mind, we create liveable communities for everyone. COTA acknowledges the diversity of communities and is keen to understand what makes your community great and what would make it greater.

We invite people aged 50+ to come along and share their voice.
